

AARON CURRIN

ABOUT AARON

Aaron is most recently the founding Lead Pastor of BLDG 28 Church in Clearwater, Florida. This church grew from a handful of people in a church plant that started in Aaron's living room to over 1,000 in 12 years. Aaron took a sabbatical earlier this year (originally scheduled for early 2020), and during that time away, he and Danielle sensed the Lord leading them to a new place of ministry, and he stepped down officially in August with their elder's blessing.

Aaron has been married to his wife, Danielle, for 18 years, and they have 3 beautiful children. He is an avid reader, impassioned sports fan, amateur skier, local food junkie, and pathetic golfer. He can typically be found during his downtime spending time with family or friends or pouring over a good book.

Aaron is a dynamic preacher/teacher with a unique and energetic style that appeals to both mature believers and unchurched people. Aaron brings depth and richness to his sermons. They are grounded in scripture with an ability to incorporate church history and doctrine. He is passionate about engaging with and reaching skeptics/unchurched through preaching.

WHAT AARON SAYS ABOUT MOSAIC

Aaron loves the lead pastor team approach to ministry as it allows pastors to focus on the areas where they thrive. He views Mosaic as a modern but Biblically grounded church and teaching ministry with a healthy and vibrant team. The staff culture and leadership design at Mosaic are attractive to him, and it seems to have produced a healthy, flourishing, and collaborative environment. He really loves the entire job description around the Lead Pastor of Teaching & Discipleship role. His primary gifting is teaching, but a close second is strategic vision for staff and the congregation. Having the ability to focus on inspiring and empowering is refreshing.
